OCHSNER HEALTH LHSAA STATE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS -- Division IV Boys Final Story

Tuesday, May 3, 2022, at The Farm d'Allie (6,536 yards, par 72), Carencro, La.

CARENCRO – Ouachita Christian made it look easy in defending its Division IV boys team title, and the Eagles' Caden Lester made it a sweep with the individual crown Tuesday at the Ochsner Health LHSAA State Golf Championships.

OCS posted a 309 team score, the low round on Tuesday by 42 strokes, to finish with a 641 team total for two rounds over the 6,536-yard par-72 Farm d'Allie Golf Club course. That was good for a 57-stroke margin over runner-up Quitman (698), after the Eagles led by only 15 strokes entering Tuesday's final round.

Lester, last year's individual Division IV winner by a narrow one-stroke margin, finished with a four-stroke win on Tuesday after the tournament's low round, a two-under-par 70 in the final round. His 76-70—146 total put him ahead of runner-up Logan Heltz of Christ Episcopal, who added a 74 on Tuesday to stand at 150, and third-place finisher Cole Haase of Riverside Academy, who had an 80 Monday but improved with a 73 in the final round.

Adam Trahan of Episcopal-Acadiana finished fourth at 154 and Max Jones of Lafayette Christian was fifth at 158 after an even-par 72 on Tuesday, the day's second lowest round.

Behind Ouachita Christian and Quitman in the team chase were Ascension Catholic in third at 708, Episcopal-Acadiana in fourth at 714 and Cedar Creek in fifth at 723.
