

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCHSNER HEALTH LHSAA STATE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS – Division II Girls Final Story

Tuesday, May 2, 2023, at Les Vieux Chenes Golf Club (5,679 yards, par 74), Youngsville, La.

YOUNGSVILLE – Morgan Guepet of St. Martin’s won her third straight individual title and Ursuline Academy made its first-day lead stand up to take the Girls Division II team championship Tuesday at the Ochsner Health LHSAA State Golf Championships.

Guepet, who had a five-under-par 69 in Monday’s opening round, added a one-under 73 Tuesday over the 5,679-yard par-72 Les Vieux Chenes Golf Club layout. She had 15 pars and two birdies in the final 36-37—73 round to finish at six-under 142 and take a five-stroke win over runner-up Sophia Macias of Episcopal who finished at one-under 147. Those were the only two players to finish under par.

Ursuline, which won the 2022 title by a 27-stroke margin, finished with a 332 team total for two days to finish 13 strokes ahead of St. Martin’s and Ascension Christian, who tied for second at 345. Ascension Christian had the day’s low team round with a 170 total, led by a 79 from Peyton Flynn on her way to a fifth-place overall finish at 158.

Ursuline put two players in the top 10, with Arianna Blagrove finishing third individually after her second straight one-over 75 score. Samantha Schultz of Christ Episcopal, who was tied with Blagrove for second Monday with an opening round 75, finished fourth at 155.

Episcopal was fourth in the team standings at 353 and Westlake finished fifth at 419.