OSCHNER HEALTH LHSAA STATE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS -- Division IV Boys First-Day Story
Monday, May 2, 2022, at The Farm d'Allie (6,536 yards, par 72), Carencro, La.

CARENCRO – Ouachita Christian put all of its four counting players in the individual top 16 and set itself up for a second straight Boys Division IV title Monday in the opening round of the Oschner Health LHSAA State Golf Championships.

The Eagles posted a 332 team score to grab a 15-stroke lead over second-place Quitman going into Tuesday's final round over the 6,536-yard par-72 Farm d'Allie course. Ouachita Christian took last year's boys Division IV crown by a 29-stroke margin.

Caden Lester led the Eagle squad with a four-over 76, good enough to tie for second in the individual chase entering the final round. Adam Trahan of Episcopal-Acadiana had the day's lowest round in Division IV and has the individual lead with a three-over-par 75 score, helping his team stand in fourth place with a 353 total.

Ascension Catholic is third in the team race at 351, four shots behind Quitman's 347 total and just ahead of ESA. Cedar Creek stands fifth with a 372 score.

Logan Heltz of Christ Episcopal (39-37—76) is tied with Lester for second individually, while Jack Abadie of Ascension Catholic is fourth at 77 and Eli Walker of Quitman is fifth at 78.

The final round is scheduled for noon off both the Nos. 1 and 10 tees at The Farm d'Allie.
