
FOOTBALL OFFICIALS TEST

The 2020 Football Officials Rules Test for officials will begin online at 9:00 AM, Monday, August 24 through Midnight, Tuesday September 8.

Beginning August 24 – September 8, login to <http://www.lhsaaonline.org> using the username and password provided to you by your RCO. Once you login into the system, download the Microsoft Silverlight Program. This program must be downloaded in order to begin the test. Click on the Online Test Tab then “Online Football Test” link. This link will take you to an introductory page with the test instructions.

You will be given 90 minutes to answer 70 questions. If you do not make a passing grade of 70% or greater, you will be given an opportunity to take the makeup test during the scheduled time period for makeup tests. Please note that this test is a timed test and once you login to the questions, the time will begin. You can take the test any time day or night during the assigned period. Once you finish the test, the system will calculate your score and let you know if you passed.

FOOTBALL OFFICIALS MAKEUP TEST

The Football Makeup Test will be available for those officials that missed or failed the scheduled test. Starting 9:00 AM, Monday, September 14 through Midnight, Tuesday, September 22, login to <http://www.lhsaaonline.org> using the username and password provided to you by your RCO. Once you log in to the system, download the Microsoft Silverlight Program. This program must be downloaded in order to begin the test. Click on the Online Test Tab then “Online Football Makeup Test” Link. This Link will take you to an introductory page with the test instructions.

NOTE: The Makeup Test is a pass or fail test. A passing grade will only classify you as a REGISTERED official.
