The 2024 LHSAA State Volleyball Championship Matches Are Set

Lafayette, La. – The 2024 LHSAA State Volleyball Championship matches have been determined following ten exciting semifinal games at the Cajundome in Lafayette on Friday. Championship action kicks off Saturday morning with the Division V matchup at 9:00 AM.

Friday Recap

Division V:

Top-seeded Metairie Park Country Day cruised past No. 5 Louise McGehee with a straight-set victory to earn its spot in the finals. Country Day will aim for its remarkable tenth consecutive Division V title. They'll face No. 2 Westminster Christian, who swept No. 3 Ascension Catholic in their semifinal matchup.

Division IV:

The Cinderella story continues for No. 8 Dunham, which followed up its upset of No. 1 John Curtis Christian with a win over No. 4 Newman. In the other semifinal, No. 3 Northlake Christian defeated No. 2 Lafayette Christian, returning to the finals for the second consecutive year. Northlake Christian will look to defend its division IV title after last year's 3-0 championship win over Notre Dame.

Division III:

Top-seeded Archbishop Hannan survived a nail-biter against No. 5 Parkview Baptist, prevailing in a thrilling five-set match. No. 2 Haynes Academy endured a similar battle, defeating No. 6 E.D. White in another five-set thriller. The simultaneous fifth sets created an electric atmosphere inside the Cajundome, setting the stage for a highly anticipated championship showdown.

Division II:

No. 1 St. Thomas More swept No. 4 Lakeshore to secure its fifth consecutive trip to the finals. The Cougars, aiming for their fifth-straight Division II title, will take on No. 3 Benjamin Franklin, which emerged victorious in a hard-fought four-set battle against No. 2 Sam Houston.

Division I:

Defending champions No. 1 Dominican swept No. 3 Mt. Carmel in a rematch of last year's championship game. Meanwhile, No. 2 Slidell swept No. 4 Northshore, setting up a highly anticipated final between Dominican and Slidell.
